“Versatilità e colore per infinite combinazioni compositive”

“Versatility and color for endless combinations”

Forme semplici dalle linee morbide disegnano elementi con volumi e dimensioni differenti per una famiglia ricca di elementi con cui creare diversi schemi compositivi.

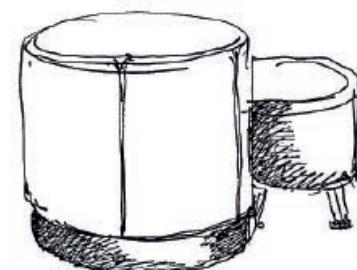

La famiglia si compone di pouf e tavolini di diverse dimensioni, disponibili sia con zoccolo che piedini in legno.

Vestiti da un'ampia gamma di tessuti e colori, lo rendono facilmente inseribile in qualunque contesto per una seduta occasionale e accessoria.

Simple shapes and soft lines outline elements with manifold volumes and sizes for a family rich in elements, with which several compositional schemes can be attained.

The family comprises poufs and small tables variously-sized, available both with a supporting base or wooden feet.

A wide range of fabrics and colours easily merge these seats into every setting for casual and accessory seating.
